Hello Ruben,

Thank you for contacting us regarding CCSA's Prop 39 Pro Bono Review Program. I will add Excelencia to the Pro Bono Review Program list for this school year. Has your school established a working relationship with charter school attorneys? Young, Minney & Corr and Procopio are the two firms that provide pro bono services to CCSA member schools under the Pro Bono Review Program. Please let me know if you have worked with either of these firms, and we will get you started in the program.

Best Regards,
